Mayor's Morning Tea for Volunteers

Mayor's Morning Tea for Volunteers - 16 June (Free ticketed event)

Tēnā koutou katoa! Thank you to all of you (70!) who have already booked your tickets to our volunteer recognition event. For those of you who haven't yet booked, get in quick as seats are moving fast - Only 30 tickets left!

Recognising volunteers is so important — not only to celebrate the incredible contribution they make, but also to help sustain the organisations and communities that rely on them. Quite simply, where would we be without our volunteers?

Volunteer Nelson is delighted to host the Nelson Mayor's Morning Tea for Volunteers in honour of our volunteer community.

Where: The Granary, Founders Heritage Park, 87 Atawhai Drive, Nelson
Set within the beautiful surroundings of Founders Heritage Park, guests will enjoy a delicious morning tea with dietary requirements including vegan, vegetarian, and gluten-free options catered for. Parking available.

Date: Tuesday 16 June, during National Volunteer Week

Time: 10.00am – 11.30am

Hosts: Mayor Hon Dr Nick Smith from Nelson City Council will join volunteers for the morning. This special event is proudly co-funded by the Mayor's Office, Nelson City Council, and Volunteer Nelson.

Members registered on SEEK Volunteer through Volunteer Nelson received early access to tickets, and we are now delighted to extend invitations to the wider volunteer and for-purpose community. Complimentary tickets are available for up to four volunteers per organisation, until the event reaches capacity. Once full, a waitlist will be created.

We look forward to sharing a wonderful morning together with our volunteer community.

Book your tickets below and put it in your calendars!
