

Advances in cancer: Research to improve prevention, diagnosis and treatment

University of Otago Christchurch Mackenzie Cancer Research Group will present a series of FREE talks including:

- Preventative therapies for breast and ovarian cancer
- Vitamin C in cancer progression or therapy
- Effect of exercise in cancer treatment
- Understanding genetic changes to breast and ovarian cancer risk
- How computer vision is revolutionising cancer diagnostics

FREE EVENTS

Nelson:

Tuesday 5 November, 7-9pm, Suter Theatre.

Online option via Zoom.

Registration essential: <https://events.otago.ac.nz/nm-health-lectures/>

Enquiries to: Angela Craig, ph. 021 279 1934.

Supported by The Care Foundation.

Motueka:

Monday 4 November, 7-9pm, Motueka Library.

Registration essential: <https://cancernelson.org.nz/community-health-talk/>

Enquiries to: Cyndy Smith, ph. 03 539 1137 / 027 258 0075.

Supported by Cancer Society Nelson Tasman.