Parent to Parent
connect • inform • support

DISABILITY & ADULTHOOD

Do you care for a disabled family member who is nearing adulthood? Asking yourself what happens next? Plan for the next stage of your family member's life with this workshop.

Many parents and carers worry what will happen when they are no longer able to support their disabled whānau member to the extent they do today. This comprehensive new workshop will show you step by step how to support and safeguard the future for your disabled loved one. Topics covered include:

- Creating a vision for the future
- Circles of support
- Supported decision making
- Legal capacity
- Welfare guardianship
- Wills, trusts and enduring powers of attorney

Ensure your disabled family member is set up to live a 'good life' as they move into adulthood. Register today to secure your spot!

Thursday 19 August, 2021

Details: 9:30am—2:30pm | Richmond Library, Constance Barnicoat Room, 280 Queen St, Richmond

Cost: Free thanks to funding from Te Pou | Lunch will be provided

This event is for families supporting a disabled family member. All family members are welcome to attend.

Click here to register now.

Or contact Christina for more information:

christinas@parent2parent.org.nz | 020 4170 6887

In partnership with:

TE POU