Armistice Weekend - 2018

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU HAD A CREAM HORN?

Just one of the items on the menu at the Tapawera Armistice Market being held in at Tapawera Area School on Saturday 10th.

READY TO START CHRISTMAS SHOPPING? – OR JUST TREAT YOURSELF – WHY NOT!

Visit the Craft Stalls on the tennis courts – stunning elephant grass hand woven baskets -all shapes and sizes, beautiful handmade tote bags, Christmas decorations, bunting, tools, WW1 items from the battlefields – trench art, posters, Pete's Lemonade, goats milk soap, fresh fruit ice cream, decorated plant pots, a working artist with paintings for sale, a face painter, delicious teas from Kenya – listen to the story of the co-operative that sells direct and makes a positive difference to poor communities, do not leave without some handmade cards by a very special young man – Alfie, and, a pair of hand crafted real fern ear rings.

A.C. Productions: do not miss these documentaries in the school hall – Friday 9th 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday 10th 4p.m. to 7p.m. They are on a loop so you can come and go as suits.

Stop for a while, watch, listen and join in – Irish dancers, School Singers, solo's and community singing 12 noon.

There's more: Saturday Theatre of Peace, School Hall 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. – it's interactive - you can choose how long you stay. Andy Dolling has been touring with this for 4 years. Spend the evening in Tapawera Hotel – a unique opportunity to read your favourite war poem 7p.m. to 8 p.m. Stay for the, "War Prayer Play", with Andy Dolling and musicians from Golden Bay.

WHAT A DAY! WHAT A NIGHT!
