Whakaaroaro - To ponder, consider carefully, give thought to reflect on

Ahurutanga - Create a safe place to be part of

Do you share these values? If so, read on....

As a Coordinator Coach you will oversee the plans and goals for a number of people receiving support. You will work in collaboration with others using our collective strengths and wisdom to help build better lives for everyone. You will help to grow individual team members and team strengths and communicate and share relevant information.

You should have a relevant tertiary qualification (minimum Level 6) e.g., diploma in social services, diploma in counselling, diploma in social work, diploma in mental health or equivalent. You will also have a minimum of three years' experience working with people in the community and experience of the health and disability sector.

You will be able to demonstrate experience in a role requiring self-management, setting priorities and meeting objectives.

How will we support you?

- Regular team meetings
- You will be part of an excellent supportive self-managing team
- You will have opportunities to attend training courses
- If you hold a professional registration, we will offer financial support to maintain your registration
- Support to develop your own 'one-page profile' and well-being plan so that the team will know what is important to you and how you like to be supported

If this sounds like you and you want to or already live in the NELSON area then please email:
